'High Dollar Woman In A Low Dollar Town' Opens Oct. 5

By JANELLE RANDALL

Claude Kezer's original musical play, "High Dollar Woman in A Low Dollar Town" will open tonight at 8 p.m. in the Old Science Auditorium.

The play centers around the life of Kezer's "Aunt Dolly"--Mary Eliza Kezer, a madam in Woodward during the "turn of the century."

Kezer will be assisted in the musical by Dr. Charles Chapman. Kezer wrote the lyrics for "High Dollar Woman in A Low Dollar Town" and Chapman composed the music for the lyrics.

At least one of the four shows here at Southwestern will be video-taped and marketed. The show is also being taken to contest, which means the show will be presented in Oklahoma City and possibly go as far as Washington, D.C. And, if the show goes over extremely well, Kezer has dreams of seeing it on Broadway.

Being in an original play is something of a novelty for many actresses/actors. In fact, many of today's best-known artists have not had the privilege of performing in a role which hasn't previously been done by someone else. So, those students who have roles in Kezer's play will be creating each of their characters for the first time ever.

Students participating in the play are: Tara Timm, Hollis junior as Dolly; Vinita Schneider, Thomas senior as Jenny; Paula Summers, Cheyenne junior as Baby Doe; Tana Trout, Hammon freshman as the folksinger; Janet Wiginton, Altus junior as the Leader of the Daughters of God; Kelton Barnett, Woodward freshman as Deward; Ricky Garrick, Duncan junior as Obediah, and Jay Armstrong, Laverne senior as Doctor Kohler.

Assisting Kezer with direction will be Kathy Waldran, Lawton junior. Lavanya Banwart, Dill City, will assist Chapman with music direction.

The play will run from Oct. 5-8 at 8 p.m. each night in the Old Science Auditorium. Admission is free to all Southwestern students, faculty, and administration with I.D. Other tickets are priced at $3 for adults and $2 for students.

WOMEN OF the Daughters of God in Kezer's play save a poor, lost drunk on the ground at the expense of overlooking another needing soul, Mary Liza.

Senate Talks With Task Force

Members of the Constitution Committee met with the Calendar Task Force during the Sept. 28 Student Senate meeting and found the general consensus of the Senate to start school one day early so that students would not have to attend classes on Labor Day.

The committee had a choice of giving up a day of Thanksgiving break or starting a day early in order to obtain the day break. There was a conflict for faculty members with the current date of fall break and the date of the OEA state meeting. The Senate felt the break should be moved to Thursday and Friday, coinciding with the meeting, instead of Monday and Tuesday.

The treasurer's report showed a current balance of $4411.61. Appropriations of $300 for the fair booth, $250 for the cheerleaders, and $1,310 for honorarium were made by the Senate. The funds for the fair booth had been approved in a prior Senate meeting.

The Executive Council elected to start its meetings at 5:30 p.m. on Tuesdays. They discussed the Senate attendance policy, the upcoming pep rally, and the movie turnouts.

In a report on activities, the showing of "Coal Miner's Daughter" was mentioned. Also discussed was the upcoming dance on Thursday, Oct. 6, at the tennis courts or the ballroom, whichever weather permits.

The Constitution Committee announced that discussion of the Interfaith Council will take place in the near future.

The Homecoming Alumni Committee reported meeting with Otis Sanders and offering their assistance in any possible manner.

Special orders of business included discussion of homecoming appropriations and miscellaneous expenses. A motion was made to form a committee to go through last year's budget and this year's proposed budget for re-evaluation of the figures. The motion was seconded and carried. Members

Homecoming Activities Draw Nearer

Homecoming activities are growing larger in students' minds as the Oct. 22 event draws nearer. The theme for the event is "Southwestern's Homecoming Fiesta."

Among the activities is the Homecoming Queen competition. The candidates' pictures will be in the Student Union showcase beginning Oct. 13. The preliminary election will be held Friday, Oct. 14. This election will narrow the candidates to five. Voting will occur from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the Student Union and from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in Rogers-Jefferson Cafeteria. All students are encouraged to vote for their candidate.

The pictures of the five finalists will be viewable in the showcase as the students return from fall break. The final election of the queen will be held Thursday, Oct. 20. The voting times are the same as for the preliminary election-- 8 a.m.-6 p.m. in the Student Union and 10 a.m.-1 p.m. in Rogers-Jefferson cafeteria.

Friday, Oct. 21, at 11 a.m. there will be a homecoming assembly in the gymnasium. Classes will be let out from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. so students can attend the assembly. During the assembly, students and faculty will have a chance to see the cheerleaders perform, meet the Bulldog football team, and see the coronation of the homecoming queen.

Groups and organizations around campus are preparing for floats to appear in the homecoming parade set for 10 a.m. Oct. 22. Parade entry forms are available in the office of the Dean of Student Personnel Services. These entry forms are due by noon Friday, Oct. 14.

Prizes for the winning floats in the parade will be $500 for first place, $300 for second place, and $100 for third place.

— NOTICE —

REDDY ROYSE

BY JANELLE RANDALL

Elizabeth Taylor, Audrey Hepburn, Carol Burnett, Reddy D. Royse, Jane Fonda. What do these women have in common? All of them are actresses. Have you heard of all of them except for Reddy D. Royse? Well, don't feel bad. Royse is an up-and-coming actress who presently attends Southwestern.

Royse, a Duncan junior, is a veteran actress to the Southwestern stage. She has appeared in such SWOSU plays as: "Luv," "Who's Life Is It Anyway?" "Detective Story," "From Orgy to Office Party," "The Christmas Carol," "The Imaginary Invalid," etc. She has several one-acts under her belt and has worked behind the scenes at many of the universities' productions. Presently she is portraying a prostitute in Claude Kezer's "High Dollar Woman in A Low Dollar Town."

With such an impressive list of shows to her name and quite a few awards for her acting, it isn't surprising to find out that Royse is a speech/theatre education major. When asked why she is getting her teaching degree, she replied, "I can't really see myself going to New York and starving for the rest of my life. My high school theatre experience was very important to me. And I would like to give my students the same opportunities that I had."

When asked when she first got interested in drama, Royse replied, "I took drama as a sophomore in high school, and I've been active in theatre ever since."

As far as recognition for her acting goes, Royse was won awards in high school for competitive speech and one for best actress. In college she received a Teddy Award for Best Supporting Actress. However, she says, "The real award I strive for is when the director tells me he's getting from me what he wants. That means a lot."

Since Royse is involved in Claude Kezer's original musical, "High Dollar Woman in A Low Dollar Town," I asked her what she thought about being the first person to ever create the character she portrays on stage. "I'm having a great time with this show. The dancing is fun, even though I have three left feet. Thinking that my name will be on the published script is really exciting. That will be something I can show my grandchildren."

Where will Royse be a few years from now? Well she hopes that "In a few years I'd like to be living in or around the Tulsa area teaching drama and speech and hopefully having a successful year. In 20 years, I hope to have my master's and be teaching at a college or university. Someplace in there I'd like to get married and possibly have a child or two."

But Royse says if she is allowed to dream she thinks, "A soap opera would be terrific. The situations are outrageous and if your character was successful, it could be a permanent job. I'd love to be Erika Kane for a day!"

Getting back to reality, Royse said she'd love to continue acting a little while teaching. "I'd like to do some community theater in the summer when I'm not teaching."

As far as tips she can give the amateur actress/actor she said, "Well, I'm definitely an amateur actor. The best advice I could give for someone who's never been on stage before is to realize the character is just that, a character. Getting rid of personal inhibitions is very important and also very difficult."

In conclusion, Royse stated, "People don't realize the time and effort that goes into a production. Next time you see a play, try to think about how these people have spent five nights a week for six weeks rehearsing. That's not including the time it takes to memorize lines, build sets, work tech, etc. . . theater takes a special commitment."

The next issue of THE SOUTHWESTERN will be Oct. 20, 1983.

Student Senate Discusses Fall Budget

of the Budget Committee will be: Chairman Jeff Jordan, Jeff Trimble, Mike Ratke, and Mynda Dilbeck.

A motion was made to take $450 out of the activities fund and appropriate it to Freshman Week activities. Also, a motion was made to take $300 from the activities fund and appropriate it to the sinking fund. The motion was seconded and carried.

The activities committee had many comments on the proposed showing of the movie, "A Clockwork Orange." The members discussed whether the movie was appropriate for homecoming or any other time. Members conversed on whether the faculty would approve of the cancellation due to the movie's controversial subject matter. There was uncertainty of whether or not another film would be obtained at this late date.

There was a vote on three possible solutions: (1) change the film to a different date, (2) cancel the picture and replace it with another, or (3) show the film as scheduled. Changing the film to a different date was the motion that carried.

New business during the meeting included the treasurer's motion to accept appropriations for honorariums and cheerleaders. Both motions were seconded and carried.

It was announced during the meeting that the attendance policy became effective as of that session. Members are allowed three absences, and after the fourth are dropped from the Senate.

A motion was made to adjourn. The motion was seconded and carried.

Members of the publicity and activities committee met following the general session.

Now we can detect a breast cancer smaller than this dot.

At such an early stage, your chances of living a long, healthy life are excellent. But we need your help. The only proven way to detect a cancer this small is with a mammogram. A mammogram is a low-radiation x-ray of the breast capable of detecting a cancer long before a lump can be felt. If you're over 50, a mammogram is recommended every year. If you're between 40 and 50, or have a family history of breast cancer, consult your doctor. In addition, of course, continue your regular self-examinations.

Alpha Gamma Delta Selects Thirteen Pin-Up Men

By SHALIA WAKEMAN
Relax guys, because the "Great Manhunt" is over. Alpha Gamma Delta has made final selections as to whose handsome face will be pinned to girls' walls all over campus.
The 13 pin-up men aren't just posing to delight college coeds, they will appear on a calender, a money making project of the members of the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. Proceeds from the calendar will be given to the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, which is the sorority's philanthropy.

From a field of 26 men, Jeff Reed, Troy Oglesby, Scott Fridley, Bud Crownover, Terry Alerd, Hank Breshears, Kelly Dwyer, Randy Dowell, Terry Johnson, Barry Bartel, Mark Russell, David Rose, and Freddie Graham were selected to pose on the calender featuring SWOSU's finest.

Hutto's provided clothing for the models to wear while posing, making sure the guys were decked out in style.
The calenders, which should be out by the last of October or the first of November, will only cost $3. Any girl who is interested in purchasing a calender should mention to her boyfriend that she's not interested in the pictures, but she'd like to support a worthy cause.

CARL HUTTO, owner of Hutto's clothing store, looks on as Kim Caulkins makes final adjustments to the shirt that Freddie Graham plans to wear for his pin-up picture.

KIM CAULKINS adjusts Troy Oglesby's tie, as he prepares to have his picture taken for the Alpha Gamma Delta calendar.

No Decal, Cause For Tickets

By CARA DRISCOLL

Are the campus police being stricter than usual this year? "No," said Officer Worley, "it's just that I have someone helping me."

Since the beginning of the fall semester there have been 815 tickets given by the campus police, as of Sept. 27.

Tickets given include: absence of decal, $2; parking, $3; and moving violation, $5.

These have been given by Officer Worley and Mike Freeman, who has been assisting the campus police.

About 600 tickets have been given for absence of decal on the car.

The first two weeks of school is a warning time to get decals, no tickets for decals are given during this time. If during the third week a car gets a ticket, the student can pay for a decal and the ticket will be voided. At any other time, all tickets should be paid at the business office in the Administration building.

When asked, Officer Worley said, "It is important to keep tickets paid. Most of the students will do that." Parking tickets are a problem with some students Officer Worley said, "come early for class if a front parking place is what you want."

Playback

There was some action from last week but lots of action for the upcoming week. Jefferson Hall dorm football ended last Tuesday evening with a bit of controversy. The fifth floor defeated the fourth in the first playoff game, and in the second game the sixth defeated the seventh. So, we're set for the championship game, right? Not exactly. According to a rule, the fifth floor was supposedly required to supply a referee for the game after their's, but didn't; so the championship game had to be forfeited by the fifth to the sixth. The end result was Steve Guthrie's second championship as the sixth floor had an undefeated season, and the fifth floor and Dale Blackburn received second place.

For the second week the Oklahoma Sooners had their problems but defeated the Kansas State University Wildcats 29-10. Head Coach Barry Switzer, for the second time in two weeks, gave the offensive unit a tongue-thrashing. It was not as horrid as Switzer says. Marcus Dupree hobbled for 151 yards, and as I expected, Spencer Tillman is improving, he gained 131 yards.

As this week evolves as the famous OU-Texas Showdown Week, everyone will be placing bets, but be prepared for anything for this year's game. The Longhorns are ranked second and trounced Rice 42-6, and the Sooner defensive backs will once again have their hands full with a good passer. Switzer summed it up like this, "If we play like this next week, Texas will kick us unmercifully."

Would you believe the Cowboys are undefeated!?! Well Dallas is, but that's not who I'm talking about. The OSU Cowboys narrowly defeated Tulsa, 9-0. They're still 4-0 and ready to face the Nebraska Cornhuskers, who made Syracuse's Orangemen look red! Tom Osborne is ready to play the Cowboys, but he has changed his schedule--he wants to play the Dallas Cowboys! Without Earnest Anderson I'm afraid the Pokes are in for a long afternoon.

Last Thursday Johnny Bench made his last plate appearance and got two RBI's and finished the season with a batting of about .250. I really hope he is inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame very soon, he was undoubtedly the best catcher of the '70s era. So long Johnny.

The baseball playoffs also start during this busy week of sports. The Chicago White Sox will face the Baltimore Orioles in the American League contest, while the Los Angeles Dodgers face the Philadelphia Phillies in the National League. I think I'll go with the Orioles and the Phillies. The White Sox must prove that they won't choke under pressure, and the Dodgers must play a lot better. They almost let Atlanta come back and catch them.

Well, that's all for this week, next week I'll either eat my words about the baseball playoffs or laugh and say "told ya so." Also I'll find out if Commissioner Pete Rozelle will allow Tom Osborne and the Huskers to be the 29th team in the NFL.

Squad Selected

By SHERRIE CHAMBERS Two bits, four bits, six bits a dollar, all for the Bulldogs stand up and holler! This is a familiar chant that six girls will, most likely, be yelling at the Southwestern basketball games this season. To be a cheerleader, one must have at least a 2.0 over-all grade average and have passed 12 hours in the previous semester.

This week, six girls were selected to fill these honored positions. The position might be a bit too exalted, as the girls will begin preparing for the season soon and will then be putting in several hours of preparation to make the 1983-84 season the best ever for the squad.

'Dawgs' Fall At Aggies' Hands

By PAUL LANCASTER The Cameron Aggies displayed a strong defensive unit and held the Southwestern Bulldogs four times when they were inside the 10-yard-line to take a 21-3 homecoming victory Saturday in Cameron Stadium.

It was the first in the win column for the Aggies in four games and dropped the Bulldogs to 1-3.

The Bulldogs dominated the Aggie defensive line--at least until the 10-yard-line. The Bulldogs rolled up 410 yards total offense with 311 of it on the ground.

Every time it seemed the Bulldogs would get something going, the 10-yard-line was their barrier. The Aggies mounted their biggest defensive stand in the fourth quarter while the score was 14-3. The Bulldogs had a third-and-two at the six, Byars was quarterbacking in the place of injured Steve Price. After faking a handoff inside, he pitched the ball right into the hands of defensive end Opie Auten at the 10, who made it to the 24 before being brought down by halfback John Lewis.

The Bulldogs also drive down to the 10 in the first quarter after a 29-yard punt return by Terry Johnson. But on fourth-and-one, tailback Byars was dropped for a loss by Jerry Thorne.

Cameron seemed to move the ball with ease against the Southwestern defense, racking up 353 yards total offense. Their advantage was making good use of the defensive stands and driving 80 or 90 yards.

The Bulldogs' only score came in the second quarter when Kioumars Rezaie kicked a 43-yard field goal in a stiff crosswind that barely cleared the left goal post.

Cameron scored its final touchdown after Auten's fumble recovery.

The Aggies' drive took six plays and was capped by Jamie Cox's five-yard run. The PAT made it the eventual final of 21-3.

Ricki Byars led all rushers with 119 yards on 26 carries, Mackie Dedeaux rushed 11 times for 69 yards. Price was seven of 13 passing for 67 yards, and Byars was two of six for 32 yards.

Southwestern began the game with several starters hobbling because of injuries. As the game wore on, the injury list increased.

Nate Bowens was taken to the hospital after an injury in the second quarter. Also, offensive tackle Larry Weikel sprained an ankle. In the third quarter, Price left the game with a shoulder injury he suffered on a six-yard run.

The Bulldogs come home for the first of a three-game home stand this Saturday when they will face Eastern New Mexico at 2 p.m.

Alumni Baseball Game Set For Oct. 15

The Southwestern Oklahoma State University Department of Athletics will sponsor an Alumni

Baseball Game on Saturday, Oct. 15, beginning at 10 a.m. Larry Geurkink, baseball coach at Southwestern, mentioned that letters had gone out to over 100 baseball lettermen from Southwestern, asking them to participate in the special event. Any baseball letterman from Southwestern not receiving this letter should contact either Coach Geurkink or Cecil Perkins, director of athletics at Southwestern, as soon as possible.

Coach Geurkink said the alumni game would be finished in plenty of time for its participants to be able to watch the Southwestern-Southeastern football game, which will begin at 2 p.m. that same day.

Intramural Softball Season Wraps Up As Teams Compete for Play-off Title

By LISA YEARWOOD

Co-ed softball action was hot and heavy on Monday, Sept. 26. As play-offs draw nearer, 20 teams struggle to better their records so they may be the ones to fight it to the finish.

Monday night action started on the north field with the Outlaw Blues pouncing on BSU #2, 18-0. The Sting won by forfeit over BSU #1. Then the tide turned as the Sting was stung by the Bandits, 6-9. And the Bandits continued to roll over the Devil's Angels, 14-1.

South field action began with Diedra's Darlings falling to Fudders, 8-10. Gamblers bagged a win by forfeit over the Queens and Aces. The night continued as the Ball Busters edged Thunder, 13-11. Ending action had The Big Cheese cooking Mac's Maniacs, 7-5.

The fall co-ed softball standings of Southwestern State are as follows:

In the Red league the records stand as respectively: Bandits, 6-0; Sting, 4-1; Fudders, 3-2;

Devil's Angels, 3-2; Godzillas, 2-3; Deidra's Darlings, 1-4; and BSU #1, 0-6.

The White league stands respectively with the Rally Killers, 5-0; and the Outlaw Blues, 5-0, tied for first. They're followed by Gamblers, 3-2; Cosmic Kids, 2-3; BSU #2, 1-4; Queens and Aces, 1-5; and Newman Club, 0-4.

The Blue league is lead by the Big Cheese, 4-0; followed by Mac's Maniacs, 4-1. Standings of others, Ball Busters, 2-2; Thunder, 2-3; Kings and Queens of Diamonds, 1-5; and Leftovers, 0-4.

According to WRA secretary, Keva James, play-offs for co-ed softball began October 3.

SOSU Team On Top

The Southwestern men's and women's rodeo teams took top rankings at the Oklahoma State University Rodeo held recently in Stillwater. The women placed second and the men fourth in the standings. Barry Wood, Inman, KS junior was awarded All Around Cowboy and Kerrie Beaman, Bennett, CO junior was awarded the All Around Cowgirl.

Outstanding individuals in the rodeo included Wood, who roped and tied his calf in 8.8 seconds for first place. Wood was followed by Roger Branch, Edmond senior with a time of 9.2 seconds, and Tim Chalfant, Cheyenne junior and Luke McClanahan, Fritch, TX junior, both with times of 9.7 seconds.

Barry Wood placed first, along with Tim Gleason, Kalvesta, KS junior, in the team roping. With a time of 7.7, Rex Penry and J.R. McAfree, ElDorado, KS junior followed the first place winners, who had a time of 6.8 seconds. Wood teamed up with another partner from Dodge City Community College to place fourth in the event. Branch teamed with a Labette Community College student to place seventh.

Many Southwestern women placed in top positions. Lisa Kneale, Maitland, MO senior placed second in the break-away roping with a time of 3.2 seconds.

Beaman ran a smooth pattern in the barrel racing competition for a second place position with a time of 15.77 seconds. Beaman was followed by Stacy Williamson, Byars freshman who raced for fourth place.

Beaman gained a second place in the goat tying competition by tying her goat in 9.2 seconds. Penny Hughes tied a goat in 9.6 seconds for third place.

Marty Miller dogged a steer in the steer wrestling event in a time of 4.7 seconds to gain fourth place.

Mike Gilbreath, Madison KS senior placed third in the bull riding event with a score of 74.

BARRY WOOD, Inman, Kan., junior, lassos his target during the calf roping event hosted by Oklahoma State University. Wood went on to win the run and be named all-around cowboy during the competition.
